June 10th

The June campout was held at Ozark RV Park in Mountain View, Arkansas. We had 3 rigs in attendance with Woods, Thiels, and McClelland/Owens. Bakers were originally registered but had to cancel due to a family commitment. Bill and Sally and Jackie and I came in within 30 minutes of each other on Wednesday with the Thiels coming in on Thursday afternoon. Since it had been raining when the Woods and Jackie and I came in, both of our Jeeps were pretty dirty and a carwash was on the agenda for both of us Thursday morning. We both headed off in different directions but ironically ended up at the same time at Melton's Country Store just north of town. It was a step back in time with many different kinds of old fashioned candy, toys and games from the past, and many flavors of Jelly Bellies.

Thursday after lunch found everyone enjoying a little nap time then visiting with each other for a short time. The Thiels came in about 3 and after setting up Alesia came over to visit with Jackie and me. We did have everyone together after supper for a small social hour with Bill and Sally providing cheesecake for all that was delicious. Thursday evening was supposed to bring rain and possible bad weather. Luckily the worst went to the south of us and our rain stopped closer to mid-morning on Friday. Plans for Friday evening are to go to Jo Jo's Catfish Wharf at Jack's White River Fishing Resort for the traditional 5:00 pm dinner out together.

Friday around noon Bill and Sally went in to walk around the shops in the square and listen to some of the music. Bob and Alesia went to town in the morning and explored some of the shops also. Ed and Cecelia arrived shortly after twelve noon. Jackie and I went with them to lunch at the Rainbow Café down by the square. They didn't bring their camper but are staying overnight at a motel and joining everyone for activities on Saturday before driving back home after supper. We played dominoes back at the campsite after getting back from lunch around three. Sally joined us in dominoes until it was time to head out for supper. After supper we played some more dominoes then Sally, Bill, and Chris went to the square to listen to more music. Bob and Alesia went into town for music also. Ed and Cecelia and Jackie and I finished our dominoes until they had to head to their motel shortly after eight.

Saturday morning was an easy morning for everyone. Bill and Sally went to have breakfast at PJ's Rainbow Café and happened to meet Ed and Cecelia there and they ended up having breakfast together then both had a trip to Walmart. Bob and Alesia visited a few shops then went to the Ozark Folk Center. We had a trip to Walmart also after breakfast then found Ed and Cecelia at our campsite when we got back. They went with us to visit Mellon's Country Store. After getting back, it was time for a game of dominoes to finish from yesterday. We all started to get dinner ready mid-afternoon. It was an early dinner as Ed and Cecelia wanted to join us and then travel back home. It also gave time for Bill, Sally, Chris, Bob, and Alesia to go into town to the square and listen to the music again. We were also able to have a short business meeting after our meal.

Everyone was able to leave for home by midmorning after a great camping trip for this month. The weather was great and it was also great to visit again with everyone with more people in attendance.
